

About the Author

Dan Hennessey

Since receiving the news he had cancer more than 4 years ago, Dan has seen many changes in his life both medically and personally. He saw a side of the medical profession that he never expected to see at his early age and was pleasantly surprised at what he experienced. We are in good hands here in Canada. With his experience dealing with cancer he has seen his focus change from why me to how can I help others. Dan takes a very active role with the Canadian Cancer Society, Nova Scotia division speaking on the importance of early detection and the role of the annual Relay for Life events. The Bridgewater Relay for Life 2010 event sees Dan take on the role of Honorary Chair and he continues to promote healthy living to anyone that will listen.

Dan is also a proud member of Branch 24 Royal Canadian Legion in Bridgewater Nova Scotia and serves on the Executive council for the Branch and is very active in promoting our veterans and recognizing the sacrifices that they have and will make for our country.

Dan is a real estate agent with Exit Realty Interlake on the beautiful South Shore of Nova Scotia where he lives with his wife Marianne, daughters Emma and Grace with another daughter Alicia who resides in Dartmouth.

The importance of a strong family circle is one of the most important tools that one can use to battle this disease when it strikes and Dan is surrounded by one of the most living caring and supportive family core that one could ever wish for.
